Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is deemed to be objectionable because it tends to promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. The image is a studio portrait of a naked girl who is presented in a way that is sexually inviting. The image is clearly intended to appeal to people with a sexual interest in young girls. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest. The classification of the publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
